IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO RULE 4-13.4 OF THE RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT RELATING TO ADMISSIONS TO THE BAR.

February 10, 2022
CORRECTED OPINION

PER CURIAM.

The Court, on its own motion, amends Rule of the Supreme Court Relating to Admissions to the Bar 4-13.4 (Alternative Method of Educational Qualification). We have jurisdiction. See art. V, § 15, Fla. Const.; Fla. R. Gen. Prac. & Jud. Admin. 2.140(d).

Under rule 4-12 (Requirement to Submit), all applicants seeking admission to The Florida Bar must take the Florida Bar Examination, which consists of the General Bar Examination and the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination. To be eligible to take the General Bar Examination under rule 4-13.1 (Educational Qualifications), an applicant must be a J.D. or LL.B. graduate of an ABA-accredited law school or be found educationally qualified under rule 4-13.4 (Alternative Method of Educational Qualification). Currently, to be educationally qualified under rule 4-13.4(a)(1), foreign-educated applicants must provide evidence that they have been practicing law for at least ten years in a jurisdiction of the United States, that they are in good standing in that jurisdiction, and that they have not been suspended or disbarred in the prior ten years. Under rule 4-13.4(a)(2), foreign-educated applicants must provide work-product samples from the preceding ten years that are “illustrative of his or her expertise and academic and legal training.” Then, under rules 4-13.4(d) and (e), the Florida Board of Bar Examiners has broad discretion when evaluating whether the submitted material “shows that the applicant is a lawyer of high ability whose reputation for professional competence is above reproach.”

In the March 2021 edition of The Florida Bar News, the Court published for comment amendments it was considering, on its own motion, to rule 4-13.4. The Court received two comments and held oral argument. Following oral argument, the Court published for comment refinements to its previously published proposal and received three comments. Having considered the comments and having had the benefit of oral argument, the Court hereby adopts the revised proposed amendments to rule 4-13.4 as discussed below.

First, after the title of the rule, a sentence is added providing that an applicant who does not meet the educational qualifications in rule 4-13.1 must meet the requirements of either subdivision (a) or subdivision (b).

Next, subdivision (a) is renamed to “Applicants without an LL.M.” The current text of subdivision (a) remains the same, except that ten years is reduced to five years throughout subdivision (1), and the last sentence of subdivision (2), which requires that a compilation of work product be confined to the applicant’s most recent ten years of practice, is deleted. Thus, as amended, rule 4-13.4(a) requires a foreign-educated applicant without an LL.M. to have practiced for five years in the United States, not have been suspended or disbarred in the five years prior to applying for admission to The Florida Bar, and to submit a representative compilation of work product in the field of law showing the scope and character of the applicant’s previous experience and practice.

Also, a new subdivision (b), titled “Applicants with an LL.M.,” is added that outlines the requirements for applicants with an LL.M. from an ABA-accredited law school that meets the curricular criteria adopted by the Florida Board of Bar Examiners. New subdivision (b) requires that an applicant with an LL.M. submit evidence that the applicant was engaged in the practice of law for at least two years in the United States and was not suspended or disbarred in the two years prior to applying for admission to The Florida Bar. Like amended subdivision (a)(2), it also requires that the applicant submit a representative compilation of work product showing the scope and character of the applicant’s previous experience and practice.

Last, subdivisions (b)-(d) are redesignated (c)-(e) to accommodate new subdivision (b), and subdivision (e) (Board Discretion) is amended to include a reference to new subdivision (b).

Accordingly, we amend Rule of the Supreme Court Relating to Admissions to the Bar 4-13.4 as reflected in the appendix to this opinion. New language is indicated by underscoring; deletions are indicated by struck-through type. The amendments shall become effective immediately upon release of this opinion.

It is so ordered.

THE FILING OF A MOTION FOR REHEARING SHALL NOT ALTER
THE EFFECTIVE DATE OF THESE AMENDMENTS.
